CERTAIN DEFENDANTS, et al.)	<hr style="width: 100%;"/>

NOW COMES Defendant, Weyerhaeuser Company, (hereinafter "Shipowner Defendant"), by and through its counsel, Thompson Hine LLP, and for Shipowner Defendant's Initial Disclosures pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1), states as follows:

A. IDENTIFICATION OF WITNESSES HAVING KNOWLEDGE OF DISCOVERABLE INFORMATION SUPPORTING CLAIMS OR DEFENSES.

Shipowner Defendant identifies the following individuals as likely to have discoverable information concerning claims or defenses in this matter:

1. Plaintiffs identified on Exhibit "A" hereto.
2. Current and/or former employees, officers and/or representatives of Weyerhaeuser Company.
3. Jesse Mayo Calhoon (deceased) by deposition taken on November 16, 1983 in Hannon v. Waterman Steamship Corp., U.S.D.C. for E.D. of Louisiana, No. 80-1175(2).
4. All representatives of all medical institutions that treated Plaintiffs identified on Exhibit "A" as well as all treating physicians.
5. All individuals listed in Answers to Interrogatories or mentioned in depositions or any other pleadings.
6. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to call witnesses to authenticate any of the documents Shipowner Defendant may seek to introduce at trial.

7. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to supplement this witness identification in the event that Shipowner Defendant learns of additional witnesses prior to or during trial.
8. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to offer any witness for rebuttal or impeachment.
9. Shipowner Defendant incorporates by reference all other parties' list of potential fact witnesses and expert witnesses served or filed to date or hereafter in this case, whether or not the party naming any such witness remains in this case at trial.
10. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to call or introduce deposition testimony of any named fact witness, expert witness or custodian of records or documents of any party or corporate designee of any party, whether or not such witness or custodian is called by such party to testify, and whether or not the party remains in the case.
11. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to amend or supplement this list to reflect information obtained from discovery produced after the date of this filing. Shipowner Defendant further reserves the right to read additional portions of any depositions of fact witnesses that plaintiff introduces into evidence or to call witnesses identified on the plaintiff's lists or the lists of other defendants, whether or not still a party at the conclusion of trial.

B. DISCOVERABLE DOCUMENTS, DATA COMPILATIONS AND OTHER TANGIBLE THINGS.

Shipowner Defendant identifies the following documents, data compilations and/or other tangible things which may be used to support Shipowner Defendant's claims or defenses, copies of which have previously been produced to plaintiffs' counsel in other litigation and/or are available as public records and/or, in the alternative, are available for review through counsel for Shipowner Defendants:

45. Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to introduce MARAD Vessel Status Cards for any vessel at issue in the matters identified on Exhibit "A." [MARAD Vessel Status Cards are public records maintained by the U.S. Department of Transportation, Maritime Administration ("MARAD").]
46. Discovery into the matters identified on Exhibit "A" is continuing and Shipowner Defendant reserves the right to amend or supplement this identification of documents, data compilations and/or tangible things.

47. Shipowner Defendant incorporates by reference all other parties' list of potential documents, data compilations and/or tangible things served or filed to date or hereafter in this case, whether or not the party naming any such document, data compilation or tangible thing remains in this case at trial.

C. COMPUTATION OF DAMAGES.

Not applicable.

D. INSURANCE AGREEMENTS.

Shipowner Defendant does not have "insurance" per se to satisfy judgments which may be entered against Shipowner Defendant in asbestos litigation. Over the years, however, Shipowner Defendant carried protection and indemnity and other policy coverage which may be responsive to a portion of the plaintiffs' alleged claims. Shipowner Defendant shall continue to review historical data regarding such protection and indemnity and other policy coverage.
